

Please allow low power radio stations to operate, and please block media monopolies from expanding to saturate local markets. Also, please auction the right to broadcast over the public airwaves on a competitive basis, using small enough units and enough publicity so that truly competitive bidding will take place.